

I am opposed to any kind of changes to the "no call rules" that may loosen the restrictions on telemarketers as they are today.

I also oppose any movement towards allowing solicitation calls to cell phones. As consumers, WE pay for all minutes used on our cell phones, and we should have the right to control who is calling us on those phones.